

SOCIETY

(Continued From Second Page.)

Frocks, with pink satin coats; their white hats were trimmed in pink roses, and they carried formal bouquets of Killarney roses and white lilies. Lieutenant A. C. Pickens, U. S. N., was best man. The ushers were Thomas Hall, Henry Howes, of Boston; Lieutenant C. P. Rogers, U. S. N.; Lieutenant W. P. Crohan, U. S. N.; Lieutenant J. Michael, U. S. N.; Paymaster E. Goodhue and Naval Constructor Louis E. McBride.

Dr. Parsons, father of the bride, was stationed for several years at the Naval Hospital, in Norfolk. Lieutenant and Mrs. Le Brton sailed Tuesday for Europe, where they will spend their honeymoon touring France, Italy and Scotland in their motor car. They will be in Boston next winter.

Meetings This Week.

The Branch R. Allen Auxiliary will meet on Tuesday morning in Murphy's Hotel Annex at 11 o'clock. This will be a very important meeting, and all members are requested to attend promptly at the time appointed.

A called meeting of the general Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities will be held in the rooms of the Virginia Historical Society on Tuesday morning, May 7, at 11 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

Lee Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will hold its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock in Lee Camp Hall. All members of the chapter are asked to be present at this meeting.

Chesterfield Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will meet on Saturday, May 11, with Mrs. T. A. A. of 1001 West Grace Street, instead of May 4, as formerly announced.

Veep Service.

This afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, at the Young Women's Christian Association, a program on China will be the nature of the regular Sunday at home. A flag of the new republic will be given each guest. The following numbers compose the program:

Scripture reading, "Rock of Ages" (Harbert Johnson), Miss Elizabeth Montgomery.

"Under the Old Flag," Mrs. R. J. Willingham.

Chinese hymn, "Ching Chou," "The Revolution," Miss Peachy Wilson.

Buddhist chant, "Praise the Lord," "Christianity's Influence on New China," Mrs. E. E. Osgood.

Class Meetings.

The Philanthropic Class of Fairmount Methodist Church, held its monthly business meeting in the home of Mrs. C. W. Pollard, the president of the class, Monday evening, April 29. The class has been in existence only a month. It has twenty-three scholars. The next business meeting will be in the home of Mrs. J. S. Brauer, 215 Moskey Street, the first Thursday evening in June.

In and Out of Town.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Judge Broderick, who have been the guests of Colonel and Mrs. Joseph Willard, on West Franklin Street, have returned to Canada.

Miss Joanna Trigg, of Petersburg, has been the recent guest of friends in this city.

Miss Camilla Wellford and Miss Fanny Scott have returned to the city, after visiting relatives in Warrenton and Baltimore.

Mrs. E. C. Mayo, who has been the guest of her parents, Colonel and Mrs. John W. Gordon, will leave in a few days for her home in Baltimore.

Mrs. Wythe Davis, Bowe and Miss

Marie Kolner are spending the week-end at the University of Virginia.

A. L. Kelly, of 2510 Floyd Avenue, who was injured two weeks ago, is now able to be out again.

Mrs. James C. Smyth, Miss Grace Meacham and Miss Mildred Withstandley have been visiting friends in Norfolk this week.

Cadet William Royall has returned to the Virginia Military Institute, after a short stay in this city.

Miss Carrie Wadley will leave this week for Roanoke, where she will visit her aunt, Mrs. W. W. Bosley.

Mrs. John Yarbrough, of Richmond, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. Stuart Blanton, in Newport News.

Miss Nellie Reynolds is the guest of Miss Elizabeth Willard at her home near Fairfax.

Miss Lucy Casey, of Williamsburg, who has been visiting in Richmond, will shortly be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Yancey, in Clarksville.

BUENA VISTA

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Buena Vista, Va., May 4.—The auditorium of the Southern Seminary in this city, has been the scene of a number of brilliant graduating recitals, but the one given on last Saturday evening by Miss Denzell Hunt, assisted by Miss R. H. Blumette Lee, of Irvington, was without a doubt the best ever given.

Miss Hunt graduated last year in instrumental music with high honors, and this year she is taking a post-graduate course. Among those from out of the city who attended the recital were: W. D. Hunt, of Richmond, and Misses Ruth Blakey and Sarah Cardwell, of Ashland.

Thursday evening Miss Bruce Villines and Miss Ethel Ludeman gave an organ recital. A large audience was present.

Saturday evening the pupils in music and elocution from the junior department gave an excellent recital. The following graduating recitals will be given next week: Monday evening, May 6, Miss Ethel Williams Spencer and Miss Miriam Bellheimer in vocal and instrumental; Thursday evening, May 9, Miss Miriam Conklin and Miss Ethel Ludeman in piano, assisted by Miss Laura Freeze in vocal.

The local dramatic club will present "The Deacon" at the Opera House next Tuesday evening.

The commencement exercises of the public school will take place May 29 and 30. May 29 will be the held day, and the exercises will consist of running, jumping, baseball and basketball. May 30 at 10 o'clock in the morning the graduating exercises will be held at the Opera House. The address before the graduates will be delivered by Hon. Greenlee E. Letcher, of Lexington, and the diploma will be delivered by William M. Brown, chairman of the school board.

Miss Burton spent several days at her home in Crozet this week.

E. P. Jones, of Richmond, spent the week-end as the guest of Mrs. C. P. Graham.

W. M. Brown is spending several days in Harrisonburg this week.

Mrs. J. M. Wells, of Wilmington, N. C., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. D. R. Miller.

E. L. Embree is spending several days in Bristol.

W. D. Hunt, who spent several days with his daughter, Miss Denzell Hunt, has returned to his home in Richmond.

Mrs. S. Beardsworth, of Indian Rock, is the guest of Mrs. B. F. Wagner.

Dreyfus & Co.

Broad at Second

Great Reductions

On Every Tailored Suit in Stock
Nothing Reserved

Hundreds of Richmond Women will profit by the marvelous bargains, that we are now offering in our Suit Department

The Suits we offer are high grade in every detail of material and workmanship and are the season's best styles.

$17.50 and $20.00 Suits	$12.50
$22.50 and $25.00 Suits	$16.50
$27.50 and $30.00 Suits	$19.50
$32.50 and $35.00 Suits	$24.50
$37.50 and $40.00 Suits	$29.50

$50.00, $60.00 and $75.00 Suits, Included in this Sale

Captivating Summer Millinery

Opening Monday, May 6th

Introducing New, Novel and Daring Color Schemes of Rare Beauty

Leghorns, Milans, Fancy Hemps, Montures of Flowers, Stick-ups and Feathers

Flower Hats for Street $5.00 to $25.00

Tailored Suit Hats $6.00 to $18.00

Straw Sailors $1.00 up

Extra
Special Serge Frocks
$15.00

Smart One-Piece Frocks, with high waist line, open in front. One style has long bands of braid in front—the other fastens on the side, carried out by the use of hand-made ornaments; have new set-in sleeves and low shoulder effect, with real lace collar and cuffs; choice in ravenswing blue, black—and white.

Tailored Serge Dresses
$6.95 to $35.00

Linen Dresses

$10.00, $15.00, $20.00

Just the Dress for comfort and smart, correct style; light and dainty; they're made in one-piece tailored styles or a bit fancy trimmed with heavy laces. We show them in a variety of summery colors.

New Pique Dresses $3.98
New Voile Dresses $6.50

Clearance Sale Kid Gloves

Long and Short Gloves, in all the newest embroideries, colors and combinations of buttons, and bindings in several makes known the world over for style, fit and durability.

$1.00 and $1.50 Kid Gloves for	69c
$1.50 and $2.00 Kid Gloves for	89c
$2.50 and $2.75 Kid Gloves for	$1.39
$3.50 and $3.75 Kid Gloves for	$1.98

Coats for All Occasions

Walking, Motoring, Driving, Traveling, Semi-Dressy Coats

Smart practical Coats for every day, in styles that are "different"—well tailored Coats with just the wanted style.

Perfect lines that give the correct fit, all in the newest weaves and fabrics, attractively priced, $10.00, $15.00, $22.50.

Dressy Coats—of chiffon, satin, charmeuse and marquisette—

$25.00 to $45.00

Throw-On Coats

Special $10.00

Double-Faced Black Satin Coats, with soft shawl collar, soft cuffs, showing the contrasting color of rich gold; Copenhagen, blue and heliotrope.

New Linen Auto Coats, $2.50 to $6.50
New Mohair Coats, $12.50 to $15.00
New Silk Coats, $12.50 to $19.50
Marquisette Throw-on Coats $25.00

Ladies' and Misses' Department

Clean Sweep Sale First and Broad

Astounding Clean Sweep Closing Out Sale

Spring Garments

In Our Ladies' and Misses' Department FAR BELOW MANUFACTURING COST

"Don't Wait" "Come Early"

For if plain type could convey half of the many excellencies embodied in these garments you would understand equally with us just how really meritorious this sale is.

Every Ladies' and Misses' Garment

During this Clean Sweep Sale at

1/2

Former Price. Ticket Plainly Marked.

Clean Sweep Sale

Any Suit Dress Skirt Waist Silk Shirt, Raincoat, or any other garment, at just

1/2

This Women's Apparel event surpasses any of the past, not to be judged by the ordinary kind of a sale. You are advised to buy now, for the entire season is ahead of you, and prices are lower here this week than they will be elsewhere during the late clearance sale—months away.

DANVILLE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Danville, May 4.—Mrs. W. W. Willingham entertained at a bridge luncheon on Tuesday morning at her home on Main Street in honor of Miss Virginia Dance and her guest, Miss Alma Glennan, of Norfolk, Va.

The house was decorated with a number of snowballs and spring flowers. Those present were Miss Grace Jones, Miss Harriett James, Miss Mary Leigh, Miss Katharine Rison, Miss Edoula Dudley, Katherine Rison, of Columbus, Miss E. Buchanan Lyon, of Durham, N. C.; Miss Alma Glennan, of Norfolk; Miss Mignon McCarthy, of Atlanta, Ga.; Miss James S. Irvin, Mrs. John W. Carter, Jr., Mrs. Malcolm K. Harris, Mrs. John Overbey, Miss Mary Lou Tucker, Miss Eliza Hamlin and Miss Virginia Dance.

The members of the caste and chorus for "Her Highness, the Goose Girl," are rehearsing regularly, and the opera promises to be a great success. Besides the sixteen leading characters in the caste, there is a chorus of fifty voices. The two new specialties between the acts will be given by six young children.

Miss Katharine Rison is the guest of friends in Danville, before going to New York.

Miss Mary Hunter Bethel, of Roanoke, is the guest of Mrs. John Penn. Mrs. V. G. Meyer has returned from a visit to New York.

Mrs. Pemberton Penn has returned from Philadelphia, where she was the guest of Mrs. Henry Jeffries.

Mrs. H. H. Moore has returned from a delightful visit to Mrs. Ashby Miller in Richmond.

Marion Robinson is in Philadelphia, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Penn.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Penn and little daughter left this week for Mississippi for a visit of a week or ten days.

Mrs. J. R. Grimes, of Orange Court-house, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. C. McFall, on West Main Street, has returned home.

Mrs. E. H. Barrett, of Birmingham, Ala., also visitors in the city.

WINCHESTER

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Winchester, Va., May 4.—Miss Douglas Fuller, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Fuller, made her formal bow to Winchester society at a large reception, which was held at the Fuller home, on Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Richard Evelyn Byrd entertained at a dinner party on Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Fuller, and it was also the occasion of her eighteenth birthday.

Mrs. W. H. Sale and her daughter, Mrs. Chas. P. Nelson, and the latter's son, W. H. S. Nelson, of Capon Springs, Va., who have been spending some time in this city, left on Wednesday for Washington, Baltimore and other Eastern cities.

Miss Sadie Woodruff arrived from Porto Rico several days ago to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Massey.

Mrs. T. M. Barr and Miss Margaret McVear left this week to spend some time visiting relatives and friends in Baltimore and Washington.

Rev. and Mrs. J. George Graichen, formerly of Waynesboro, Tenn., who have been with the former's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Graichen, for several months, left this week for Morristown, Tenn., where Rev. Mr. Graichen will become pastor of a Lutheran Church.

Miss Isabelle Baker has gone on a

W. M. I.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Winchester, Va., May 4.—Major McClung, surgeon of the post, has been absent on leave for several days attending important business in Washington. During his absence Dr. Laird, of Lexington, has been attending to his duties.

Colonel and Mrs. Robert Kerlin gave a delightful dinner party at their quarters Wednesday evening. The guests were, Colonel and Mrs. Ford, Captain and Mrs. Brumage, Mrs. Newell, Mrs. E. Edwards, Miss Kennedy, of Kansas City; Miss Watkins, of Farmville; Captain Edwards and Captain Crowder.

General Scott Shipp, superintendent emeritus of the Institute, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Ben Huger, and his granddaughter, Elizabeth, left last week for Fort Douglas, Utah, where he will spend some time with his son, Captain Arthur Shipp, U. S. A.

A large number of cadets attended the reception at the Presbyterian Church Monday evening.

The superintendent leaves Lexington on May 11 for New York, where he will spend several days. He will attend the banquet of the New York Alumni Association on New Market Day.

The corps of cadets will leave Lexington May 17 for their annual practice march. The line of march will be through Goose Run to the Alum

Spots and back to Lexington over the mountain. The march will cover about fifty miles, and will last nine or ten days.

Colonel Watts, the professor of mathematics, will address the Alumni Association at Pulaski on New Market Day.

Miss Watkins, of Farmville, who for the past few weeks has been visiting Mrs. Robert Kerlin on the Hill, has returned to her home.

Mrs. Nelson G. Edwards left Monday for her home in St. Louis, after a visit of a month to her son, Captain M. F. Edwards.

Mrs. E. C. Page and young son, of Springfield, Mass., are visiting Cadet Corps, of the fourth class.

The portrait of General C. J. Anderson, of Richmond, former Adjutant-General of the State, and present member of the board of visitors, has just arrived, and will be hung in the library with the other portraits of the members of the New Market battalion.

General Anderson was a private in Company A at the battle.

Governor Mann, of Virginia, has written the superintendent that he will present the corps of cadets with a flag containing the new coat of arms of Virginia. Governor Mann expects to be present during the week of annuals as the guest of General and Mrs. Nichols, and will make the presentation at that time.

Preparations are now being made at the Institute for a series of entertainments to be held the week ending Saturday, May 11, and Friday, May 10, the faculty and subfaculty of the Institute will give their faculty ball in the gymnasium, to which all of the corps will be invited. A large number of girls from the schools at Sweet Briar, Staunton and Lynchburg are expected to be present. Saturday evening at 8 there will be a song recital in the Jackson Memorial Hall by the well known composer and singer, Mrs. Jesse L. Gaynor, and her two daughters, Miss Rose and Miss Dorothy Gaynor. Immediately following the concert, the cadets will give an informal hop in the gymnasium.

WARRENTON

Warrenton, Va., May 4.—Richard and Glenn Cook, who have been spending some time in Warrenton, left on Sunday for their home in Baltimore.

John Latham returned to Richmond on Monday, after spending several days in Warrenton with Mr. and Mrs. John R. Turner.

Gwynn T. Sheppard, an old Warrenton boy, now making his home in Philadelphia, was a recent visitor to Warrenton.

Miss Vass, of Culpeper, is the guest of Mrs. Hugh Hamilton.

Miss Josephine Brodas visited Warrenton this week.

Mrs. C. M. Harris, of the Green Spring Valley, is the guest of Mrs. Harry C. Groome at "Arlite" Farm.

Miss Isabel D. Sprague, who has been spending some time in Warrenton, left recently for California, where she will remain some time.

Miss Mary Meyers, who has been in Warrenton for the winter, reached Warrenton on Saturday, and will remain here for the summer.

Miss Josephine Spillman has as her guest at "The Bell" Miss Drinkard, of New York.

Walter P. Wyer returned to Warrenton on Saturday last, after spending the winter in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Lieutenant William Eberle, of the

UNITED STATES SHIP MAYFLOWER

was a visitor in Warrenton this week.

Miss Fanny Scott and Miss Camilla Wellford, of Richmond, who have been spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. C. Keith, have returned home.

Mrs. James K. Maddux entertained at a luncheon on Tuesday in honor of Miss Kitty Belt and her guest, Miss Ware, of Maryland.

Luther H. Chamberlain has joined Mrs. Chamberlain at Captain Carter's, after several months spent in Chicago.

Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth, Miss Helen Taft, Captain Frank McCoy, U. S. A., and Messrs. C. M. Hunsdel and Norman Van Vorst, with eleven horses and several wagons of equipment, reached Warrenton on Sunday night last, having ridden from Fairfax Courthouse on that day. The party remained in Warrenton overnight at Mrs. Edward Carter's and left on Monday morning for Sperryville. Captain McCoy left the party here and returned to Washington by rail. Miss Taft will leave the party at Hot Springs, Va., about May 5 or 6, where Mrs. V. A. worth will be joined by several other guests, who will continue the journey to Genesee Valley, New York, a distance of over 1,000 miles, which Mrs. Wadsworth makes annually on horseback.

Mrs. Edwin Hinks is visiting friends in Philadelphia.

Misses Anne Gordon Stone and Mabel Flynn went to Washington on Friday to the horse show.

The library talk given on Thursday afternoon at the Warrenton Library, the subject being "Voltaire," and led by Mrs. C. Shirley Carter, was largely patronized.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Cook, who have been in New York for some time, left this week for a trip to Cuba, where they will spend several days before returning to Warrenton.

William Sowers, son of Rev. and

WARRENTON

Warrenton, Va., May 4.—Stuart Spiller, of New York, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Spiller. Mr. Spiller will sail early in May for China.

Mrs. Jannie Cochran, of Charlottesville, is the guest of Mrs. R. J. Preston, at "Florissant."

Carl Ewald is at home, after a visit to friends in Johnson City.

Mrs. J. D. Stultz, before leaving for New Orleans, where he will reside in the future.

Mrs. James Parker, of Richmond, is among the early guests who have arrived to spend the summer in Wytheville.

Mrs. William McNair, of Statesville, N. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Edward McDonald, of Marion, were called to Wytheville by the sickness of their father, E. H. McDonald.

Rev. Francis H. Craighead has returned from a visit to Ivanhoe, Galax and Fries.

WYTHEVILLE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Wytheville, Va., May 4.—Stuart Spiller, of New York, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Spiller. Mr. Spiller will sail early in May for China.

Mrs. Jannie Cochran, of Charlottesville, is the guest of Mrs. R. J. Preston, at "Florissant."

Carl Ewald is at home, after a visit to friends in Johnson City.

Mrs. J. D. Stultz, before leaving for New Orleans, where he will reside in the future.

Mrs. James Parker, of Richmond, is among the early guests who have arrived to spend the summer in Wytheville.

Mrs. William McNair, of Statesville, N. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Edward McDonald, of Marion, were called to Wytheville by the sickness of their father, E. H. McDonald.

Rev. Francis H. Craighead has returned from a visit to Ivanhoe, Galax and Fries.

MONDAY'S

Double Header

Here's a chance to get two great bargains at the time when they are needed.

Black Hats, large and medium chip shapes for ladies and misses; elsewhere $2.00 and $3.00, but here..... 98c

Ladies' and Misses' Raincoats, regular $5.00 value; here only..... $2.98

THE FASHION

118 East Broad St.

Wrong Side, Between First and Second.